Hi Josh,

We have not talked for a while. How are you doing in Sydney? It has been three months since you and your family moved to Australia. How does it feel to be an Australian?

After only a month of training, Lady could finally follow my command. She can sit and give me her hand. I have attached a video to the e-mail! You'll love it!

Christmas is coming soon! You are coming back to Hong Kong, aren't you? I heard that a Christmas fashion market will be held in Tsim Sha Tsui along the harbour. Over fifty pop-up shops will be there. They will sell clothes and accessories. There will be some food and drinks stalls too. Guess what? Your favourite band is going to perform at the pier with Santa Claus on Christmas Eve. We cannot miss that!

My mum misses you a lot too. She said she will prepare a big feast for you on Christmas Day. She has already ordered a roasted turkey from Grande Chicks. Its head chef is a famous American chef. There are many comments online praising how delicious and juicy the roasted turkey is. Please also invite your parents and sister to join us. Otherwise we will not be able to finish the entire turkey! Let's walk Lady together afterwards so that I can show you her tricks in person.

By the way, do not forget our annual tradition of exchanging Christmas gifts! We can exchange before our feast. I have already bought yours. It is suitable for the cold Australian weather in July. It is the same size as the shirt I gave you before you left. It should fit you unless you got chubbier. Is there anything else that you want to do during Christmas? Tell me in the next e-mail.

Looking forward to seeing you soon!

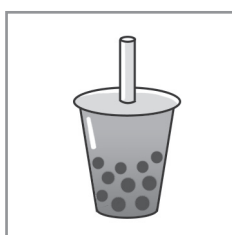

Best,
Peggy
